An Act for continuing the Duties granted by several Acts made in the sixth and tenth Years of Her late Majesty's Reign, for repairing the Harbour and Key of Watchett in the County of Somerset.

And to several private Bills.

Stockholm, May 17. The King is now perfectly recovered of his late Indisposition; and his Majesty has been present in the Senate every Day this Week. Count Freytag, the Emperour's Envoy, returned hither from Copenhagen some Days ago. On the 14th Instant a Battallion of the Provincial Regiment of Upland came hither; so that it is reckoned there may be now in this Neighbourhood a Body of 10000 Foot; and it is said about 5000 Horse will also be here by the End of this Month or Beginning of the next.

Hague, June 11, N.S. Letters from Berlin advise, that on the 4th of this Month M. Repsdorff, Chamberlain to the Duke of Holstein, passed through that Place in his Way from Riga to Hambourg: He reported that the Czar was still at Riga the 30th past, but designed to set out on his Return to Petersbourg in a few Days. The 8th Instant being the King of Great Britain's Birth-Day, M. Dayrolle, His Majesty's Resident here, entertained several Lords of the Regency and the foreign Ministers at Dinner, and with a fine Consort of Musick.

Paris, June 14. The King has recall'd the Abbot de Gamache, Auditor of the Rota, from Rome, in order to make him Archbishop of Besançon, in Recompence of his good Services; and 'tis said the Abbot Tanfin, who accompanied the Cardinal de Rohan to Rome, will remain there in Quality of Auditor of the Rota. The Count de Tavannes, who presided this Year at the Assembly of the States of Burgundy in the Duke of Bourbon's Absence, has received a Gratification from the King of 40000 Livres, and an Addition of 2000 Livres per Annum, to his Allowances as Lieutenant-General of that Province. The Memorial which the Duke de la Force presented lately to the King, will be reported to the next Council of Regency by M. Armenonville, Secretary of State. It is said the Parliament is about making a Representation to the King, to justify their Proceedings in that Affair, and to refute the Duke's Memorial, wherein he complains of several Irregularities in the Process against him. The old Duke of Bouillon is dangerously ill, and has received all the Sacraments; as has also Madame de St. Contest, Mother to M. de St. Contest, one of the King's Plenipotentiaries for the Congress of Cambray. The Turkish Ambassadour came back Yesterday Morning from Versailles. An Arrêt was published Yesterday, renewing the Prohibitions made formerly against bringing into this Kingdom, or wearing any Silks coming from the Indies, China, or the Levant, or any painted Callicoes coming from the said Countries.

Whitehall, June 9, 1721.

Whereas the Ship Batchelor of Newcastle, Thomas Dobson Master, having on board five Servants of the Right Honourable the Lord Polwarth His Majesty's late Ambassadour at the Court of Denmark, with Plate, Linnen, and other Goods of considerable Value belonging to his Lordship, was lost on the Gunfleet Sands on the 12th of May last: And whereas it has been represented to His Majesty that at the time the Ship was in Distress, her Crew, and other Persons (who came in Boats on Pretence of giving their Assistance) rifled and took away Part of the Goods; and that all the Lord Polwarth's Servants, with three Danes Passengers, and only one of the Crew, were lost; which Circumstances create Suspicion, that the said Servants and Passengers were murthered, in order to the better Concealment of the Goods so plundered and carried off, as aforesaid: His Majesty, on the humble Request of the Lord Polwarth, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon, together with the Reward of 100 l. to any one or more Persons, who shall discover the suspected Murtherers, so as they be convicted.

CARTERET.

The Lord Polwarth promises a fitting Reward to such who shall give Information of any Part of his said Goods, so as the same be recovered.

The Commissioners for Licensing Hawkers, Pedlars, and Petty Chapmen, do hereby give Notice, That daily Attendance will be given at their Office, over-against the Bull-and Gate in Holbourn, from Tuesday the 13th Instant, (Sundays and Holidays excepted,) for the granting of Licences: And that all such as are indebted to the Office, for the latter Moiety of the Duty on Licences already granted upon Bond, on Failure of speedy Payment, will be prosecuted at Law for the same.

South-Sea-House, June 9, 1721.

The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company give Notice, That, in order to a Dividend for the Half Year ending at Midsummer next, the Transfer Books of the said Company will be shut on Friday the 23d Instant; and further Notice will be given of the Time for Opening the same, and for delivering out the Dividend Warrants accordingly.

African-House, June 9, 1721.

The Court of Assistants of the Royal African Company of England hereby give Notice, That Dividend Warrants for Payment of 10 l. per Cent. to the Proprietors of the old Stock of the said Company, will be prepared, and ready to be delivered out at their House in Leadenhall-street, on Wednesday the 12th of July next; and that Attendance will be there given for Delivery thereof, and Payment of the same that Day, and every Friday and Wednesday following, from Ten till One a-Clock.

The Committee for Letting the City's Lands in the Account of the Chamberlain of the City of London give Notice, that they intend to Lett by Lease a Piece or Parcel of Ground in Thames-street, near Fishmonger's-Hall, on which
